

1940

- 1940, all BC Units active in war work. One project was the collection of postage stamps.
- 1941, girls collected 17,000 postage stamps, the highest number collected by any group in Canada
- Betty Frost and Phyl Munday worked in the BC office. During the war, they recalled how they worked behind blackout screens and did not see a crack of daylight from morning until night.
- 1945, Morkill Library was created to honor former P.C. Mrs. Alan Morkill
- 1947 - 48, BC Guider Hortense Warne served a year and a half with Guide International Service, working with babies and children in war torn post war Europe
- 1948, the provincial publication The Thunderbird adopted a two color cover and was produced by Woodward's stores in thousands as their gift to Guiding