A few comments from our 2016 Workshop:

I LIKED:

- Meeting new ladies and other commissioners from around the province and knowing that we have some of the same problems.
- The opportunity to network and engage with other leaders and discuss.
- How much depth there was in the enrichment session.

I LEARNED:

- New strategies for meeting management.
- Some new strategies for finding new leaders and some ways to make meetings fun.
- Where to find information, what to do in certain situations, what I am responsible for as a DC, how to deal with conflict.

I AM GOING TO:

- Be sharing a lot of this info with my District Guiders; feel more confident in my position.
- Feel better informed, prepared.
- Strive to make meetings more fun, interesting and educational – I got great ideas this weekend.

Adult Arts Event 2017 – Save the Date

October 27 – 29, 2017

Friday evening will be light and easy with a Multi Arts mixer, some light refreshments and a Singing Circle.

Saturday's schedule will include sessions across the whole spectrum of the Arts, including Drama, STEAM (STEM with an artistic twist), Crafting, and Singing. The day will end with a Canadian Painting Pub night and Campfire – Singing Circle style.

Sunday will provide a time for participants to wrap up projects they have been working on, more singing for those who can't get enough and – weather permitting – an outdoor activity or two!

The anticipated cost for this Canada's 150th themed weekend will be $150. Watch ANY_Guide News for registration details. For more information contact Mary Hatcher mhatcher@telus.net.

Trip Planning and Trip Financials

This motion from Alberta Council will affect our members who are hoping to travel. They will be available by teleconference/Adobe Connect as it is a provincial training and require pre-registration. If you have questions on the requirements please email the provincial commissioner at provincialcommissioner@albertagirlguides.com.

Trip Planning PLEASE NOTE: These sessions will begin being offered again in the Fall of 2017.

Trip Financials PLEASE NOTE: These sessions will begin being offered again in the Fall of 2017.
