

The Chinese Fan (U.K.)

Jubilee Song Book, page 44

My ship sailed from China with a cargo of tea.
All laden with treasurers for you and for me.
They brought me a fan, just imagine my bliss
When I fan myself going like * this, like this, like this.
(Repeat x4)

Actions:

Actions follow the beat with an even flowing movement. Each action starts at the * and is continued throughout the next verse, till the new action is introduced.

Verse 1:
Fan with right hand.

Verse 2:
Fan with both hands – crossing them.

Verse 3:
Fan with both hands and right foot (sweeping it over left foot and back).

Verse 4:
Both hands and both feet (apart and crossing).

Verse 5:
As above, plus head nodding slowly forwards and back.

