CAMP BRAVE

Scotland!

This flagship international camp will take place near Edinburgh, Scotland's beautiful capital city. It's going to be an experience Guides and Rangers from all over the world will never forget.

Camp Brave takes place from 2-8 August 2020 at Dalkeith Country Park near Edinburgh.

Are you ready to try your hand at high-adrenaline activities? Kick back and relax with new friends from around the world and visit world-class attractions? Yes, yes and yes? Then this is the camp for you! Camp Brave will bring you the full international camp experience. That means amazing on and off-site activities, a chance to meet Guides, Girl Scouts and Rangers from around the globe and, of course, chill out zones for adults.

Your participation includes: Access to an exclusive international camp for Guides, Rangers and Girl Scouts from all over the world where you'll experience the best of what Scotland has to offer. Participants will make friends for life and take part in action-packed and exciting activities at this fully equipped and catered event. Every attendee will get a free Camp Brave t-shirt and necker. Adults can take part in activities if they want and they'll enjoy a trip to our beautiful capital city, Edinburgh. There will be a chill out zone on site just for them where they can spend time with other volunteers.

Québec Council will support the participation of 2 Guiders for 100% of the cost of the travel and Camp Brave experience.
