Activity	Valentines for Vets You'll need: cardstock, paper, markers, stickers, ...etc. Veterans Affairs Canada (VAC) has a great program called Valentine's for Vets which is a great service project for Brownies. All the girls need to do is make a Valentines card for a veteran. Keep the message happy and appreciative for the vet who will receive the card. They will not take cards with glitter on them. After the girls make the cards you mail them into the address below. They need to have received the cards by January so they have time to get them to the veterans. Use the link below to go to their website for their tips and message ideas before you begin so you know what they are looking for. http://www.veterans.gc.ca/eng/remembrance/get-involved/valentines-for-veterans/tips Mail to: Valentines for Vets Veterans Affairs Canada Canada Remembers P.O. Drama	Peaceful Situations Split the girls up into small groups and give each group a different scenario. Have them do a small skit to show how to resolve the situations in a peaceful and respectful manner. Once the girls have had some time to practice come back as a large group and show the group. Have small groups act out situations such as: How to stop a disagreement. How to greet a person who does not speak English. How to be good losers. What to do if everyone in your group wants to do something different. Come up with any situations you like...or ask the girls for ideas.	Peace #6

Activity	Peace Acrostic Poems You'll need: A piece of poster board paper per patrol, markers and Pencils Have the girls work in patrols or other small groups. Give each group a piece of poster paper and have them create an acrostic poem. An acrostic poem is when the take the word "Peace" and write it vertically on their poster paper and come up with hat each letter in the word represents. Example: P- people being kind to one another. E- everyone thinking of other peoples point of views. A-a day with no violence. C- caring for one another. E- enjoying time with your family. Once the groups are done come back as a large group and have them present their ideas of peace.	Peace #4
