

Camp Ponchos

My Brownie leaders and myself are making camp ponchos for each girl for an end of the year gift.

Most of the girls did not even know what a camp blanket was and there parents were even more confused. Every time we did a badge they would ask if this was for their badge scarf or the camp blanket.

So we thought this would make things easier and at least they all will have a camp blanket till they are through the complete Guiding program and hopefully become enthused about earning more badges to go on it.
