

Internet Safety Craft

Can be done by all ages

Purchase computer mouse pad with cloth finish (not shiny finish)

White is the best colour

Copy the Internet Safety information from the Girl Guides of Canada website

<http://www.girlguides.ca>

Copy the rules (or have older girls do it themselves) with permanent markers onto the mouse pad

Have the girls decorate the rest of the pad with pictures of their choice

To avoid smudging when using markers work either from the top to the bottom or from left to right

Let the mouse pad dry for a while before using

This mouse pad will provide a permanent reminder of the Internet rules

While doing the craft talk about Internet safety
